Special Congregational Meeting We need to have a quick congregational meeting on June 5th right after worship. Faith Formation is back! We're starting our dinner and faith formation on Wednesday evening. We'll start at 6:00 and then at 6:30 confirmation youth will go to their class, and the adults will dig into the Wired Word with Pastor Debra. If you would like to provide a light meal, or team up with someone, please sign up on the sheet in the Narthex.

Filling the Freezer Our meal supply is dwindling, please look for a note from Sharen coming soon to resupply meals for those in need.

New Ministries The council is investigating new ministries. We are in discussion with Weber School district about the possibility of partnering with them to hold English Language Learning (ELL) classes here. The other thing we are looking into is supporting Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service (LIRS). If you would like to know more about the mission of LIRS here's a link to their website <https://www.lirs.org/about/>
