A heartfelt thank you everyone that made our yard so successful. Whether you donated your treasure, volunteered your time, or spent your money, we couldn't have done it without you.

It may not seem like it, but the yard sale is such a blessing to members of the community that need a chair, or a set of your precious dishes, or pots and pans, or the multitude of other things that were donated.

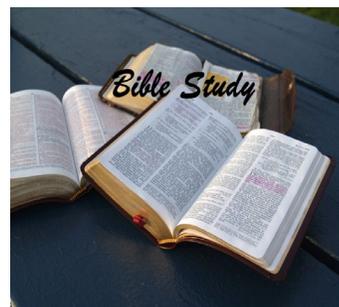

God bless you for always stepping forward to support this ministry.

A special thank you to Diane and Stuart Schultz for taking the lead and bringing this great event together.

Thanks to Lynn and Carol Benson for providing treats for today's coffee hour.

The total for this year's sale...just over $3160!!!
Thanks be to God!

Grab a cup of coffee and a treat and join us as we continue our introduction to the Book of Revelation.
