Concept for New Building for Family Promise

Family Promise of Ogden has been looking for a new place to have a permanent Day Center and housing for the families that rotate for through the program on their way to independent lives. This is a Family Promise model that has been very successful in other cities.

FPO has been conducting a capital campaign and looking for buildings but to this point haven't had success. One possibly that we have discussed is offering the space at the back of our property for them to build a facility. This is only a concept nothing has been decided and we are looking for your input before anything is decided. Please speak to a member of the council or Pastor Debra if you have ideas or concerns. We will talk about this at our meeting on the 5th, but again, only as a concept. Please include Family Promise in your prayers at they continue this journey.

TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

Revitalizing your congregation's preaching ministry

Our synod is hosting a Rocky Mountain Synod-only cohort with the Rev. Dr. Shauna Hannan (preaching professor at PLTS in Berkeley, CA).

If your congregation is open to a more collaborative preaching model (perhaps even developing a cadre of lay preachers), consider this opportunity. Congregational teams consisting of 4-5 lay people and a rostered minister who will journey through the program together.

This online workshop series consists of six sessions over three months and begins in April. This first workshop series set up for congregational teams will lay the foundation for an optional follow-up series: "Essential Skills for Lay Preachers" (available to individuals).

There will be a cost for congregations. For example, if five congregations each have a full cohort, each congregation will pay $700. It may also be possible, however, for some congregations without a full cohort to join in with another congregation group, so the cost could be shared and be less. Space is limited, so reply soon to reserve a place in the program.

Each person would be asked to buy the book: The Peoples' Sermon. The schedule currently looks to be from 4:30 to 6:30 pm these days:

- April 23
- May 7
- May 21
- June 4
- One-on-One for session 5 (between June 5 and June 24)
- June 25

If you are interested, please let Pastor Debra know as soon as possible. She will be in touch with the Synod office to reserve room in the program.
