Brick Thompson - laydirector@utahvdc.org

Mary Kartak - secretary@utahvdc.org

- To our snow shovelers and ice melt spreaders - it has been a long winter ❄️
- To our talented choir and Kamberlynn's family and students for a wonderful presentation of "We Were There".
- To Jim Craig for his diligence in working to resolve the problem of waterlogged cold air returns and many other maintenance tasks.
- To those who tend to the needs of our church members with rides, meals, and conversation.
- To Arliss Zimmerman for her flower and palm displays for Palm Sunday and Easter
- To Nancy Otto for the dramatic visual display for Easter and the many hours of crafting the worship service and bulletins.
- To the many of you that came in on Easter Saturday to prepare the sanctuary and fellowship hall for our Easter Celebration.
- To Eric Refsdal who each week creates, uploads and processes our YouTube videos.
- To Sharen Kamp who tirelessly sends out email and text communications to the entire congregation
- To all our Family Promise volunteers, including those who partner with us from Elim and Our Savior's, for providing respite for families facing homelessness in our community.
- To Pastor Debra who cares for the Ascension flock with so much love, care, and compassion.
- To Edith Cyrst for volunteering to lead Adult Bible study.
- To the church members who have so far made 105 care kits for Lutheran World Relief
- To those who contribute joyfully to our noisy offering.

A note of thanks from Pastor Debra – As we offer thanks individually, I would just like to speak to the overall generosity of the people of Ascension. I'm always amazed at the buzz of calls and cards and meals and caring for one another. That is a beautiful expression of the body of Christ.
