pie

If you can bring a pie for our Father's Day celebration, there's a sign up on the counter in the kitchen.

Altar flowers this morning given by Don and Dee Brown in honor and celebration of their 57th wedding anniversary.

Thank you so much to those that came out last Saturday to help bring the sprinkler systems online. Todd Hart, James Jimenez, Dave Finlanda, Alan Day, Eric and Pat Refsdal, and Leo Seeber. Kim Engelby joined us for moral support. Your help was so appreciated.

Updates from the Council

- Some dates to put on the calendar.
 - August 6, Reception following worship in honor of Bruce and Joan Marlow. Wendy Lee, Bruce and Joan's daughter will join us.
 - Aug 20, Rally Day, Nicole is working on a hot air balloon or two, and we will have a potluck to kick off the school year for our kids.
 - Oct 7, Blessing of the Pets
- God's Work Our Hands is September 10th. If you know of some service in our local area that needs done, please let Nicole Shane or Cindy Day know. They will be heading up the day for us.
- Family Promise is currently updating their Mission Statement to present to Harrisville City as part of the process they're requiring for the building of the new Family Promise facility. We will continue forward with this.
- We have hired a person to continue to work on the sprinklers, but there are some heads that need the grass around them dug out. If you can help with that, please talk to James as he has sharpened his spade and will be tackling that job.
