Ascension's Landscaping Project this Week

For 1-day last week, and 3-days this week, 21 church members and friends along with 13 people from Hometown Ogden, did work that probably would have cost us thousands of dollars and a huge amount of time to complete. You did hard all the work, you provided food and refreshments and endured the heat of the day to get the job done. God bless you all.

A note from Pastor Debra - Matthew 17:20 says, "Truly I tell you, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you," We saw this truth revealed. We also saw the power of what it means to be good neighbors and to have one of those neighbors come along to share their faith with us.

About This Event

In times of uncertainty, we are invited to see with new eyes.

Look to the Christian contemplative tradition for wisdom to help meet this moment with clarity, courage, and compassion. Join us for ReVision: What Do We Do With Christianity?, a three-day gathering—in-person in Albuquerque, New Mexico, and online—hosted by the Center for Action and Contemplation (CAC).

An invitation to see with new eyes, ReVision is an opportunity to ask honest questions and engage Christianity as a living tradition still unfolding.

As the first in a new annual series, ReVision welcomes seekers, skeptics, and faithful questioners to explore how ancient contemplative wisdom might help us reimagine the institutions, stories, and spiritual practices that shape us.
